About this programme

Our Weekly Arts Club is an exciting space to create alongside others and build your community at the Southbank Centre. Led by artists and wellbeing practitioners, these sessions invite you to explore different art forms – from visual arts and creative writing to music – inspired by the vibrant festivals happening across our site. It's a low-pressure environment where you can experiment, share ideas, and discover new tools for your wellbeing. Whether you want to develop a new skill or simply find a creative spark after school, this club offers a warm and supportive place to belong and create together.
