

Poetry Club

Creative writing, Poetry and Spoken word

Join our poetry club to explore creative writing and performance in a supportive environment. Work with inspiring artists at the National Poetry Library

About this programme

Discover the power of your voice at our new poetry club, hosted by the Southbank Centre's National Poetry Library in partnership with Poetic Unity. This is a welcoming space for you to explore our world-class collection, experiment with creative writing and build a community with other young creators. Led by inspiring local artists, the sessions offer a low-pressure environment to develop your craft and boost your wellbeing. You'll also have the exciting opportunity to share your poetry through performance and spoken word nights, celebrating your creative journey alongside a supportive audience. No previous experience is needed – just your curiosity and ideas.
