

Youth Collective (16 - 20 year olds)

Multi Arts

Join our monthly Saturday meetup to get creative and help shape the future of the Southbank Centre's arts and wellbeing programme alongside professional artists.

About this programme

The Youth Collective is your space to co-design the future of our Arts & Wellbeing programme. Meeting once a month, you'll collaborate with professional artists to develop creative projects and ensure our work reflects what you want to see. This is a brilliant opportunity to build your skills in leadership and co-design while finding your creative spark in a welcoming, low-pressure environment. No previous experience is necessary – we want your unique ideas and perspective to help us build a community that supports everyone's wellbeing. We are currently operating a waiting list for this project.
